Validate the handset is In-Warranty

- Attempt to duplicate the failure
- Make sure there is limited physical damage (good condition)
- No liquid damage (check the liquid detection label)

Inform the customer of their options to replace their in-warranty phone

Option 1: Manufacturer Warranty

- Give customer the contact information for that manufacturer (see page )

Option 2: XBM (Exchange by Mail) $15.00 charge

- Customer's in-warranty issue must be duplicated at the time the requested handset is claimed by the customer.
- Inform the customer that their exchanged handset will be available in 3 business days from the day requested.
- Store representative will log onto the BroadTech website and request a FRU exchange by mail for the customer.
- Store representative will set the expectation that the customer will pay $15.00 plus tax at the time the requested handset is claimed by the customer.

Option 3: OTC exchange (Over the counter exchange) **OTC is not an option to all locations*

- This option can be offered to the customer who requires a "same day" FRU exchange if inventory is available.
- This is normal ESN/MEID FRU exchange using in the stock FRU at authorized* OTC locations.
- Store Representatives at Non-OTC locations are required to refer the customer to the nearest OTC location for "same day" exchange.

At this point the system will prompt you to create an RMA for this unit. If an RMA is already open, the unit will be added.

Note: If an open XBM has already met its max count of 50 units, the system will not allow you to disposition any other units until the open XBM is submitted.

Corporate Stores Only: If you wish to convert the handset into your inventory prior to 14 days, go to the Exchange by Mail Status screen and select converted from the dropdown. Converted units are now part of the store’s inventory. To Return a Converted unit to BroadTech, go to the Return Ship Notification, select <RMA TYPE>, FRU, Create New RMA, then return the unit as “Overstock” Reason- “Unknown Condition”.

Note: XBM orders that have reached 10 days since submission will have the disposition box highlighted in yellow, 14 days red. Dealers can be charged FULL RETAIL PRICE for that model if they do not return it. Dealer’s records will continue to be outstanding and appear on the “No Disposition” report generated by Corporate Logistics. It is the responsibility of each market to ensure no dealer XBM orders are over 14 days without the dealer returning the handset to BroadTech or completing the order with the end customer.

Now the “Exchange by Mail” status page is updated. You can now select another XBM request to update, close out and return later or proceed to processing returns back to BroadTech.
